How to Count It All as Loss

Condensed from <https://www.desiringgod.org/articles/how-to-count-it-all-as-loss>

What does it mean to count everything as loss for the sake of Christ? What does it mean to renounce all that we have for Christ's sake?

This is what it means to be a Christian. It is not advanced discipleship; it is basic Christianity. This is confirmed in Jesus's words, "Any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple" (Luke 14:33). Renouncing all we have is the same as "counting everything as loss." This is what happens in conversion. You can't be a disciple without it

This is what I believe it means to find Jesus so all-sufficient and all-satisfying that (1) we count everything as loss (Philippians 3:8), (2) renounce all our possessions (Luke 14:33), and, (3) "sell" all we have to possess the treasure of Christ (Matthew 13:44).
